

WELCOME

Mexico City, Mayo 30, 2020.

Dear brothers and sisters of the Covenant of Love,

On this day I give thanks to the Holy Spirit for pouring his gifts on this world that is in so much need of Love. I ask Him to grant us docility to His inspirations and to the Father's Will, and to help us live our charisma with happiness.

In this joyful and thankful ambient, I give you the most cordial welcome to the page of the Covenant of Love with the Sacred Heart of Jesus, in which we desire to have communication and closeness.

We entrust this work to the Holy Spirit so that it enlightens everyone who participates in its operation.

We ask Our Mother, Blessed Concepción Cabrera, to accompany us.

Welcome!

Overcoming oneself out of love, to achieve holiness!
